End of Year Tax Preparer Seminars Scheduled

Tax professionals are invited to attend a two-day seminar covering new tax law and other current financial and economic topics, featuring speakers from the Internal Revenue Service and the Alabama Department of Revenue. The event is sponsored by the Auburn University Outreach Program Office.

This seminar is usually well-attended, so pre-registration is strongly encouraged. Registration cost is $99 if paid more than 10 days before the seminar, $124 if not. On-site registration, if seats are available, is $149. Register by calling Auburn University at 334-844-5100 or online at www.auburn.edu/outreach/tax.

The seminar has been approved for 16 CPE credits for Alabama practitioners and for those from several surrounding states. Check the online information or call for details.

Topics for the seminar include state and federal individual and business tax issues, farm issues, new tax law, trusts and estates, practitioner ethics, investments, retirement, offer in compromise and state privilege tax.

Questions? Contact Scott Greenwood at 334-844-3107 (office), 334-329-8550 (cell) or greens1@auburn.edu.
