Nonemployee Confidentiality and Disclosure Statement

By reading this entire statement and signing, I agree that I fully understand that, pursuant to Section 40-2A-10, Code of Alabama 1975, I shall not publish, divulge, disclose or make known in any manner or to any extent not authorized by law any information contained in any return, report or record when it identifies or discusses a taxpayer. I also understand that any tax return or return information that I come in contact with will not be used for private gain, is completely confidential and may not be divulged or disclosed at any time, now nor in the future.

Further, I agree that I understand that if I violate this confidentiality statute, I will have committed a Class A misdemeanor for each act of disclosure, which is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail or to hard labor for the county for a period of not more than one year and/or a fine of not more than $2,000. I am aware that the Department of Revenue does receive tax information from the Internal Revenue Service, and that I may be subject to federal confidentiality statutes provided under the Federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act, The Federal Tax Reform Act of 1976, or the Taxpayer Browsing Protection Act, as described on the reverse page, and, if I violate these statutes, I will be subject to the penalties provided for under these applicable laws. I also acknowledge that I have been provided with a copy of this statement for my personal records.

DATE

Section 40-2A-10, Code of Alabama 1975 provides as follows:

Confidentiality, disclosure, and exchange of tax returns and tax information.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, it shall be unlawful for any person to print, publish, or divulge, without the written permission or approval of the taxpayer, the return of any taxpayer or any part of the return, or any information secured in arriving at the amount of tax or value reported, for any purpose other than the proper administration of any matter administered by the department, a county, or a municipality, or upon order of any court, or as otherwise allowed in this section. Statistical information pertaining to taxes may be disclosed at the discretion of the commissioner or his or her delegate to the legislative or executive branch of the state. Upon request, the commissioner or his or her delegate may make written disclosure as to the status of compliance of entities subject to the requirements contained in Chapter 14, prior to its repeal, and Chapter 14A, as applicable. A good standing certificate shall be issued to a requesting person with respect to a business entity if the entity has filed all state tax returns required under Chapter 14, prior to its repeal, and Chapter 14A, as applicable, and paid the taxes shown as payable in accordance with those returns. Any person found guilty of violating this section shall, for each act of disclosure, have committed a Class A misdemeanor. Additionally, to the extent provided in 26 U.S.C. § 7213A, it shall be unlawful for any state employee willfully to inspect, except as authorized in 26 U.S.C. § 6103, any federal tax return or federal tax return information acquired by the employee or another person under a provision of 26 U.S.C. § 6103 referred to in 26 U.S.C. § 7213(a)(2).
