All Distributors Filing a Walker County Excise Tax Return

By Resolution on October 1, 2025, the Walker County Commission authorized the Alabama Department of Revenue (ALDOR) to administer the gasoline and motor fuel excise taxes for Walker County effective January 1, 2026. Walker County will be added to the Monthly Tax Return of State Administered County Taxes on Gasoline and Motor Fuels (B&L: MFCO). Therefore, January 2026 Walker County excise tax returns should be filed with ALDOR no later than February 20, 2026.

Gasoline and motor fuel local excise tax returns and payments should be submitted through My Alabama Taxes at myalabamataxes.alabama.gov/. If you already have a County Fuel Tax Account (CFT), you will not need to register again; however, if you do not have a CFT account, you will need to request a new account. If you are currently filing through the Motor Fuel Single Point system, you may continue to do so.

If you need assistance setting up an account or have any questions about this notice, contact our office.
